Esse Health Hires New Director of Coding, Compliance and Health Information

ST. LOUIS – Erin Stamm, who holds a master’s degree in business administration and is a Registered Health Information Administrator, has joined Esse Health as the new director of Coding, Compliance and Health Information.

Stamm will be the internal project manager for the implementation of Esse Health’s new practice management and electronic medical records system. She also will lead the auditing/coding education department.

Prior to joining Esse Health, Stamm was an administrator of health information management at Washington University School of Medicine Department of Orthopedics. Stamm completed her master’s degree in business administration and Bachelor of Science in Health Information Management from St. Louis University. She currently volunteers as a coach for Girls on the Run St. Louis.
